DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 19

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Jan 19. In the Senate several petitions were presented for the abolition of the franking privilege which provoked considerable discussion. Drake, Conkling, Thayer and Howe favored the object of the petition. They thought it improper for the Post Office Department to undertake to bring about legislation by circulating the greatest misrepresentation of facts in the shape of circulars to Postmasters [illegible] to the purpose of petitions.

Patterson presented a letter calling attention to the wholesale smuggling of merchandise into the United States from Mexico at Matamoras and a portion of territory known as the Free Belt. The Mexican Government had refused to abolish the Free Belt and some remedy is now imperative. The memorial was printed and tabled.

Several bills granting lands to railroads were introduced.

Discussion on the Virginia Bill

The Virginia bill was taken up.

Morton corrected a statement made by Norton that the Military Commission now in session in Georgia is to pass upon the qualification of members. That board was convened simply to take evidence and report to Gen. Terry in regard to the qualifications of members.

Norton said his complaint was based upon the interference of the military commander with the civil administration in Georgia. The newspapers this morning state that Gen. Ames has been elected Senator from Mississippi, who is not even a citizen of that State, and only there by virtue of his position as General in the army by which he was enabled to control and manipulate the State election.

Wilson said the House bill had never been before the Judiciary Committee and moved to refer the bill to that Committee.

Trumbull appealed to the Senate to dispose of the bill upon its merits in order to consider other important and urgent public business. If the majority of the Senate had determined that the State which had complied with all the conditions should not be admitted let them say so directly.

Sumner was unwilling to admit Virginia into the United States still smoking with rebellion and asserted that the late election in that State was a huge fraud.

After further discussion Morton favored the amendment of the bill to declare specially that the adoption of the Constitution in good faith, was a condition of her admission. Such a provision would prevent the nullification of any material portion of the Constitution and would make Virginia appreciate the fact that the violation of the terms of admission would compel Congress to deal with her.

Howard enquired how the remedy for a breach of those conditions could be applied.

Morton would not indicate or say how but when the proper time arrived Congress could determine. Georgia, after reconstruction had been remanded to her former state.

Drake remarked that he was in opposition to the admission of Virginia, while the Fifteenth Amendment is pending. He moved to postpone further consideration of the bill till Feb 28.

A motion for an Executive session was lost 32 to 28.

Edmunds' amendment requiring the imposition of the oath upon the State officers that they are ineligible under the Fourteenth Amendment, was adopted—46 to 16. The following voted: Bayard, Casserly, Davis, Terry, Fowler, Fleming, Kellogg, McCleary, Norton, Ross, Saulsbury, Vickers. Nye, voted aye and then changed his vote, remarking that the Judiciary Committee had deserted their ground. He followed the example of Edwards and opposed the amendment relative to the time when the bill should take effect, which after some discussion, was withdrawn. The Senate then adjourned.

In the House, on motion of Brooks the General of the army was directed to inform the House by what authority Generals Ruger and Hazen and Major Goodfellow are acting as Commissioners of election in the Georgia Legislature.

Wheeler introduced a bill granting the right of way to the National Central Railroad.

Styles introduced a concurrent resolution for the adjournment of Congress on the second Tuesday in April. The House negatived a motion to lay it on the table—72 to 83. Stiles moved the previous question on the passage of the resolution which was seconded—74 to 66, the concurrent resolution was then rejected—74 to 97.

Ingersoll introduced a bill providing for the construction of the Niagara ship canal. Referred.

The House resumed consideration of the bill transferring the Philadelphia Navy Yard to League Island.

Randall to obviate objections made yesterday by Dawes offered an amendment providing that the proceeds of all sales be paid into the Treasury. Washburn accepted the amendment.

Kelly replied to Dawes speech made yesterday. He said Dawes pursued a dog in the manger policy and took unfair standards of comparison in comparing the estimates this year with the appropriations last year.

Dickey also replied to Dawes. He said the increase of $49 000 000, of which that gentleman spoke included $11 000 000 for pensions. Was the [illegible] of the revenue responsible for it, was the Treasury Department responsible for the $6 000 000 caused by the expense of public buildings ordered by Congress, the post offices in New York, Boston and other buildings all over the country? It was not for the administrative officers to nullify the laws of Congress by refusing to execute them. If Congress had authorized extravagances it should take the responsibility and Johnson's estimates should not be applied to this administration.

The Secretary's estimates of the last year of Johnson's administration were $372 000 000 and the actual expenditures were $3[illegible] 000 000.

In the House Mr [illegible] from the Committee on Ways and Means reported a joint resolution for the continuance of the income tax, which was passed.

WASHINGTON, Jan 21.—When the morning hour expired the House went into committee of the whole with the intention of giving Mr Butler an opportunity to make his speech in reply to Mr Dawes, but Mr Wilson of Ohio also was entitled to the floor and insisted on his right to speak and declined to yield the floor to Mr Butler or any other man. This changed the programme which caused considerable laughter, when the committee arose and the House adjourned with the understanding that the session to-morrow would be for debate only.

In the Senate petitions for the abolition of the franking privilege were presented and referred. The latter occasioned some discussion. Bayard and Thurman animadverted upon the action of the Postmaster General in instructing postmasters to procure signatures to such petitions as improper and as attempting to forestall public opinion.

Mr Pomeroy introduced a resolution for a Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution providing that the basis of suffrage shall be citizenship, that all native and naturalized residents shall enjoy the same rights and privileges of the elective franchise. That each State shall determine the age and time of citizenship required for the exercise of the right of suffrage, which shall apply equally to all citizens. The Virginia bill was then taken up.

Mr Trumbull denounced Mr Dawes' misstatements. Mr Sumner arraigned the action of the Judiciary Committee in refusing to hear the arguments and statements of certain Virginians. [illegible] Mr Trumbull denied the assertion of the Senator from Massachusetts with regard to the Virginia election and Governor Walker. Mr Sumner's assurance [illegible] Representatives [illegible] was referred to. The Senator had [illegible] followed the example of the [illegible].

Mr Sumner replied asking how Mr Trumbull became a [illegible] himself. He said [illegible] first day the proposition was introduced in the Senate to [illegible] for suffrage [illegible] the Senator from Illinois had been his unrelenting enemy. He denounced him as a representative of the Kuklux Klan [illegible] also [illegible] against the impeachment of Andrew Johnson. Mr Sumner [illegible] in a similar strain, quoting from letters [illegible] and speeches [illegible] made by Governor Walker [illegible] of the people of Virginia. The [illegible] reminded Mr Sumner that he had used improper language to another Senator.

Mr Sumner declined [illegible] improper [illegible] be conclusive of [illegible] remarks. [illegible] the question [illegible] upon Drake's amendment [illegible] as a fundamental condition prohibiting any change in the State Constitution to deprive citizens of the right to vote. Mr Schurz moved to amend by placing in the amendment the words "or hold office" to prevent the exclusion from office hereafter by change in the State Constitution of any person now allowed to hold office. Mr Schurz's amendment was rejected by a vote of 28 to 31. Mr Drake's amendment was adopted by 42 to 26. Messrs [illegible], Nye, Stewart and Williams voting in the negative.

Mr Drake proposed an amendment by imposing as a further fundamental condition that it should never be lawful for the State to deprive any citizen of the United States of the right to hold office on account of color, race or previous condition. It was adopted 30 to 29.

Mr Wilson moved further as a fundamental condition that the Constitution should never be amended so as to deprive any citizen of school privileges. Adopted, ayes 51, nays 20.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, Jan 19. The President has nominated Butler Cater for Superintendent of Internal Revenue for the Second District of California.

The universal franchise convention to-day appointed a committee to wait on the President and enlist his sympathies in behalf of the objects of the convention. Senator Pomeroy was among the speakers. A resolution was adopted favoring the extension of suffrage to females. One sympathising with Harriet Beecher Stowe because she had been assailed for the honest performance of seeming duties was tabled by a large majority.

The Supreme Court having overruled a motion to rescind the order assigning for immediate argument the case of the McGarrahan claim, it was argued to-day upon its merits.

CHICAGO, Jan 19.—A Tribune's Washington special says the selection of officers to remain in Bureaus of the War Department will probably be made within ten days. It is thought Gen. Robert Williams will be retained as Adjutant General in the Quartermaster's Department. Dana will probably go as Paymaster to Rochester. He is now in New Mexico. He will probably relieve Palmer in this district.

The Indiana delegation united in asking the President to appoint William Cumback Minister to Portugal, vice Shellabarger resigned on account of ill health.

Julian, Chairman of the House Committee on Public Lands, will report in favor of giving Lamon & Hutchins the lands on which they are now living—160 acres each. He holds they are entitled thereto under the Homestead law. The general opinion among Congressmen is the Hutchins & Lamon are entitled to some rights but it is not certain they will get their lands.

The greater part of the session of the Senate Finance Committee yesterday was spent in the consideration of the nomination of a Collector of San Francisco about which there is something of a row among Californians. The same special says Dawes in his speech yesterday caused much excitement in the House. He made a searching errand [illegible] and condemnation of the departments for their extravagance in their estimates for the coming year and was particularly severe on the Postmaster General and the heads of the Bureaus in the Navy Department. He had previously visited the Department and urged a revision and reduction of the estimates and even went to the President and talked about matters. At the conclusion of his speech Dawes was thanked by nearly every Republican on the floor.

Further Particulars of the Great Storm—Many lives lost—Immense Destruction of Property

LOUISVILLE, Jan 17.—A terrible storm visited Cave City at noon on the Louisville and Nashville railroad at an early hour this morning, resulting in the destruction of property. Seven or eight persons were instantly killed, including a tank man, his wife and two children and eighteen persons more or less injured. A number of buildings were blown down and timber scattered in every direction. It is not ascertained how far the hurricane extended. The storm passed over a portion of this city. Hail the size of walnuts fell, stripping the trees entirely of small limbs. The river continues rising six inches per hour which is faster than has been known for years. If the flood continues great destruction of property will ensue.

At St Louis. Panics in a Theater and Church

ST LOUIS, Jan 18.—A terrific thunder, lightning, wind and hail storm passed over the city last evening doing considerable damage to signs, awnings, shutters, chimneys, etc. A panic occurred in the Varieties theater and several persons were severely bruised in attempting to escape from the building. A number were precipitated from the second story windows. At the Olympic Theater, where religious services were being held, a similar scene occurred. Several women fainted and a number of persons were bruised. The telegraph wires were prostrated in all directions. The weather which has been very warm turned exceedingly cold after this storm. The thermometer is as low as it has been at any time during the winter.

At Cincinnati—Great Floods Imminent.

CINCINNATI, Jan 19. There was an unusually heavy rain [illegible] thunder, lightning and heavy wind early this morning. Considerable damage was done in this city by the overflow of cellars, etc. The embankments on the railroad track were washed away in many places. The storm is now quelled and the weather is rapidly growing cold. The river has risen ten feet in the last twenty-four hours and is still rising.

MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 24 1870

Aid from an Unexpected Source

If things go on at the present rate we are not sure but we shall advise the Republicans of the State not to raise any money for the circulation of campaign newspapers and documents We have aid from an unexpected source The Herald has undertaken to print for gratuitous circulation five thousand copies of William Mungen's repudiation speech, delivered in the House of Representatives on the 16th of last month With proper explanations and foot notes this speech will answer an excellent purpose as a Republican electioneering document It will have this effect No honest man can read it without pronouncing the author a scoundrel, and the party which indorses it dishonest Its publication, however, and the indorsement given it by the printing of "five thousand extra Heralds," containing it, "ordered for free distribution by some gentlemen of Portland, as an electioneering document, may be fairly said to be such an indorsement of Mungen's repudiation views as binds all the parties concerned. Indeed, the simon pure Democracy of this State had already been committed practically, to the same views by its adoption of the Pendletonian theory Notwithstanding the timid and trimming disclaimer uttered by the Herald the other day, the Democracy of Oregon is planted as squarely on the repudiation plank, as Mr. Mungens himself

Now, when the people read the "five thousand extra copies of the Herald containing Mr. Mungen's speech in favor of repudiation," we trust they will read on from where Mr Mungen left off, and through the "debate," as continued by Brooks and Potter, of New York, Randall, of Pennsylvania, Slocum, of New York, Kerr, of Indiana, Cox, of New York, and other distinguished Democrats, who almost tumbled over each other in their eager, headlong haste to repudiate Mr Mungen and his repudiation speech. We hope the people will read all this that they may see how Democracy agrees, East and West, and how one wing of the party admits a thorough conviction that the popular current is too decidedly against repudiation to admit of risking the adoption of Mungen's views as an authoritative expression of Democratic doctrine.

When the readers of the "five thousand extra copies of the Herald," get through with the class-meeting confessions of the Democratic Congressmen, let them read the manly, honest Republican resolution introduced by Mr. Garfielde, of Ohio, and the proceedings thereon, only a portion of which are published in the Herald, in its "five thousand" extra copies, but which we will furnish to order, from the Congressional Globe Here is the Republican party position as stated by that resolution:

Resolved, That the proposition, direct or indirect, to repudiate any portion of the debt of the United States is unworthy of the honor and good name of the nation, and that this House, without distinction of party, hereby sets its seal of condemnation upon any and all such propositions.

We hope the readers of the extra five thousand copies of the Herald will continue to read on till they find where the "ayes and noes" on the adoption of that resolution show that one hundred and twenty-four voted for it and one—Mr. Thomas L Jones, of Kentucky—voted against. Let them read on further and find the valiant repudiator, Mungen, among the eighty-six who were absent or not voting. Even Mungen did not dare to face his own music, before the country, and he shied himself out of the Hall he had just disgraced, in time to avoid the additional disgrace of voting "no" along with Jones of Kentucky, on Mr. Garfielde's resolution

By all means, circulate Mungen's repudiation speech; but let us have the foot-notes.

"Corruption Fund"—Democratic Cheek

And now comes the Oregon City Enterprise and manifests its distress concerning the proposition of the Republican State Central Committee to raise funds for the distribution of campaign documents and newspapers. Like the Herald, it snuffs danger in the air. It sees "corruption." It is a queer quality of mind in these Democratic gentlemen that they cannot contemplate the use of money in a political campaign without associating it with the idea of "corruption." The Republican committee contemplate the use of money only for the purpose of disseminating information concerning the political issues of the day. For this purpose, it has always been customary to raise money, and it is an excellent custom. We prefer to appeal to the intelligence of the people rather than to the venality of a rabble

Suppose we should say that the Democratic State Central Committee effected an understanding about raising money for the purposes of the campaign, would any member of that Committee have the temerity to deny it? Does not that Committee or the Convention for which it provides, habitually do it? That is their own business, not ours. The difference between the two committees and the two parties in this matter, is this: The Republicans propose to raise money to circulate reading matter and then leave the people to think and decide, according to their convictions, the sum to be raised for this purpose being a comparatively small one—so small as to make it simply ridiculous to connect it with the idea of "corruption" The Democratic Committee and the leaders of their party propose to raise "more money than the d—l Blacks can raise"—we quote here from the drunken boast of one of the Democratic leaders, made in this city on the street, just after the adjournment of the Committee It was determined, while the Committee was here, to "carry this election if it should require $60,000"—we quote again from the same authority. Is it in contemplation to raise sixty thousand dollars to be used for circulating Democratic campaign documents and newspapers? The most remarkable thing of that kind ever done in Oregon by the Democracy, was when they agreed to raise between three and four thousand dollars to circulate six thousand copies of the campaign Oregon Herald, and that was not done so much for the purpose of circulating information as to help out a confessedly embarrassed organ If the Herald ever got from the contracting parties all that amount, moderate as it was, common report is false. But be that as it may, it is as well known as any transaction of the campaign that three thousand or four thousand dollars was an insignificant figure as compared with the amounts of money used by the Democracy to carry that election, in this city alone Where did the money go and how was it used? Certainly not in circulating reading matter among the voters Such a proposition would make any Portland man laugh. The fact is undeniable that the money was used to corrupt voters and to import voters, and to pay the expenses of imported voters while here And yet with the remembrance of the gross Democratic frauds of that election still fresh in the minds of men of all parties, the Enterprise has the cheek to talk of a corruption fund in connection with a proposition to raise two or three thousand dollars to pay for campaign newspapers and documents! Verily, if Democracy has one trait which distinguishes it above all others it is broad [illegible] cheek

Editorial Notes

The Salem Press has some sensible remarks concerning the chronic croakers about the decline and death of Portland's commerce It says very pithily referring to various railroad enterprises that "It is a narrow and bigoted notion that some people have that the prosperity of their neighbors is cause of offence to themselves

As the organ of the "White man's" Democratic party of Oregon may forget to publish such little tit-bits as this from the National Intelligencer (Democratic), we will do it for them Says the Intelligencer

"There is no necessity for the Democracy to further pin itself to slavery, or any of the questions connected with it The free negro element is one that demands recognition, and the longer this recognition is put off the worse it will be for the party There is no class of people so ready to follow where the Democracy leads, as the negroes Ties of gratitude and affection, ties of love and association, endear them to their late masters, and to a degree unknown to cooler blooded or more advanced races Yet what has the Democracy done so far toward encouraging this element of political strength? Spelling negro with two g's is certainly not the way to invite negro co-operation, and yet that is about all which, so far, has been tried

We are afraid that an old boast of Democratic twaddlers is about to come to grief They have so blowed themselves up and so felicitated themselves on the assumption that the Democratic party has always sailed under one and the same name, that we really feel moved to express our sympathy with them upon the destruction of this little innocent childish pastime The Democracy no longer can be known simply as Democracy. There is now in the field a party known as the "New Democracy," with a new platform, new catch-words and new humbug The women are to vote, and everybody who wants to work is to have employment at the hands of the national or local governments This is Utopian enough, certainly, to please even the Oregon "Laboring Lawyers." But apropos of this matter, it strikes us that we remember to have heard in times past of "Old line Democracy," "Progressive Democracy," "Free Soil Democracy," "Jackson Democracy," "Straight Democracy" and several other descriptive appellations applied to various wings, factions, and independent organizations of Democracy, to distinguish them from one another; and now we have the "New Democratic Party" And still Democracy is one, indivisible, eternal, national—always the same, everywhere!

RAILROAD INCORPORATION —The Astoria and Salem people are moving in the matter of a railroad between those points We learn from the Press that articles of incorporation of the Astoria and Salem Railroad Company were filed in the office of the Secretary of State on Saturday The incorporators are Joel Palmer, E N, Cooke, W C Johnson, Jas K. Kelly, J. Taylor, Geo Flavell, J C Hustler, A Vandusen, Jas Welch, Cyrus Olney, W A Mills and F R Cornelius. The capital stock is placed at $3,000,000, in shares of $100 each The above names include none but good and staunch men—men who, when they sign, mean business That they may succeed in their enterprise is a wish that must be felt by every true friend of the general good of the State. There is no doubt whatever but, as the Astoria resolutions said, the building of this road will open up large tracts of country and bring it into usefulness, which must otherwise remain undeveloped and valueless

What the Hon W T Ballou says about the "King of Pain"

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7, 1869
Dr J J McBride—Having suffered with sciatic rheumatism some months, I was induced to use your "King of Pain" I take pleasure in recommending it to those afflicted with rheumatism. I know of several cases of neuralgia that have been cured by using it.
W T BALLOU, of [illegible]

Card from Harbor Master.
SAN FRANCISCO, D[illegible] 1869.
To Dr McBride—This is to certify that I have been troubled with neuralgia in my right arm and hand for the past three months and although I have had medical advice and tried a number of remedies none has relieved me until I tried Dr McBride's King of Pain," which has done me more good than all the other remedies I have tried
JAMES S HOGEMAN

THE GREAT KING OF PAIN.
DR. J. J. M'BRIDE,
TELLS YOUR DISEASE WITHOUT ASKING ANY QUESTIONS!

A CARD.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 16 1869
DR. McBRIDE—My Dear Sir For the last six or seven years I have been afflicted with rheumatic pains, from my knees down embracing all the joints of ankle and toes These pains have come upon me periodically every year at this season of the year My knees and ankles and toe joints, and my wrists and finger joints would swell and leave me in the most agonizing pain, known only to those who have suffered from this dread malady These pains would continue for a period of from three to four months every year and they have been regular unfailing annual visitors I have been accustomed to apply for relief to the best citizens of San Francisco and have not failed to use all the popular remedies known to the public I would sometimes receive temporary relief after long continued application but it would never fail to return in a few days with increased severity

About two weeks ago while my pains were upon me I saw you at the corner of one of our streets, and heard what you said about your "King of Pain" I confess that I listened to you with deep distrust indeed, I may say that I did not believe your statements "Still," thought I "it's only a dollar, and I'll patronize the 'humbug' one dollar's worth" I bought a bottle and tried it first on my knee which was fearfully swollen and from which I suffered very severely The second night I used it again and my dear Doctor you can judge of my surprise ecstacy and delight altogether when I found on rising the second morning that my pains were entirely gone and the swelling entirely disappeared My knee joints were as supple as when I was young. I actually danced with delight, much to the amusement of my friends who had been in the habit of regarding me as a decrepid old rheumatic It has now been two weeks and I have not felt the least symptom of return I believe I am cured and I feel so grateful to you that I offer you this statement verified by my oath to be used by you in whatever way you may think proper and I feel it a duty to let others similarly afflicted know where they can find relief

I am, yours, very truly RAPHAEL LOOKAISE

State of California city and county of San Francisco On this 16th day of October 1869 personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace in and for the city and county of San Francisco aforesaid Raphael Lookaise, known to me to be the person who signed the foregoing letter and who being by me duly sworn, deposes and says the contents thereof are true
T W TALIAFERRO Justice of the Peace

TO THE PUBLIC

Grateful for the eminent services of Dr J J McBride I cheerfully make a statement of the following facts For twelve months I had suffered from prostration of my nervous system resulting in partial paralysis and almost total loss of sight A score of physicians had abandoned my case as hopelessly incurable I had even heard my days numbered by doctors and friends In the agonies of my neuralgic pain I sought the great "King of Pain" Under that benign influence in one half hour I had obtained more relief than I had known for long weary months My sight was so much restored that I could read print although I had needed a guide to find Dr McBride's office but before leaving him I had regained the use of my almost paralyzed limbs and seemingly my strength had returned while all the aches and pains [illegible] were dissipated and gone It is now two days since I undertook treatment with Dr McBride and I can say unhesitatingly that I am restored as I could not have expected to have been in so little time My eyesight is most perfectly regained my whole physical system corrected and is in doubled health

My residence is in Reading I do business at No 63 Cambridge street in this city where I will willingly vouch in person for the truth of the foregoing to any one interested

DISEASED MEAT —A piece of pork has been sent to this office from Yamhill county, which is filled with small sacs, or follicles inclosing animalculæ and which the party sending it thinks may be dangerous to the health of persons eating it. In a note from Dayton, accompanying the piece sent us, the writer says "It is creating a great deal of excitement in our midst, and is supposed by many, (in fact all who have examined it) to be the identical "disease" so prevalent in Europe and also in the United States By the request of many citizens here, I have taken the liberty to send you a small piece, with the request that you turn it over to some scientific man for further investigation. The animal, of which this I send you is a piece, was raised by Mr William Hash, of this place, and he is very anxious to have the matter investigated, not only for his own satisfaction, but for the benefit of the community and country at large There is one German in this place who has examined the piece of pork that you and says he has seen the same kind of disease in Germany, and it has proven fatal to many of his countrymen who have eaten thereof This being the first case of the kind that we have yet heard of in this country, we deem it a duty, not only to ourselves, but to humanity, to have the matter thoroughly investigated if possible " We have placed the article in the hands of a chemist and physician in this city, and will publish his analysis and observations on it in the course of a day or so.

TO IMMIGRANTS —P. S. Marther, of San Francisco, agent of the Liverpool and Great Western Steamship Company, has sent, in response to a letter from the Secretary of the Board of Immigration and Labor Exchange of this city, the following rates of fare, in gold coin, including medical attendance, from European ports to San Francisco Tickets, good for six months, can be procured at the San Francisco agency by parties on this coast who wish to send for their friends From Liverpool and Queenstown to San Francisco, cabin, $210, steerage, $84, from Hamburg, Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Harlingen and Antwerp, cabin, $224, steerage $90, from Copenhagen, Gothenburg, Christiania, Stavanger, Bergen, Paris, Havre and Manheim, cabin, $230, steerage, $93 ; children under twelve years old, half price; children under one year old, $3 50 Passengers forwarded from New York by the Pacific Mail Co. via Panama Steamers leave Liverpool every Wednesday, and Pacific Mail Co 's steamers leave New York on the 5th and 21st of each month

FAILED TO CONNECT —The boat from the Dalles failed to make connection with the boat from this place on last Saturday. The Columbia is reported filled with ice above the Cascades and no connection by the river can be expected for some days. In the meantime a mail has been sent through to the Dalles by land from the Cascades The freeze in the upper Columbia has proved a greater inconvenience to the people of this valley than ever before, as a greater portion, if not all, the eastern mail now comes by that route There should, by all means, be some more ample provision made for carrying the mails from the Dalles to Portland in such emergencies, than seems to exist at present We call the attention of the U S. Postal Agent to this matter, so that such arrangements may be made before another winter

AFTER THEM.—The police are on the watch for a number of boys who have been roaming the streets at night and committing petty depredations in this city for some time past Yesterday we observed the City Marshal make his appearance rather suddenly among a crowd of them collected on one of the wharves, when the little rascals scattered in all directions as quickly as possible. There are at least seventy-five candidates for the penitentiary in this city, in the person of boys between the ages of ten and sixteen years

INSANE PATIENTS —From the Salem Press of yesterday we learn that W F Hill of Coos county is on his way to this place, having in his charge Chas Lamore, an insane person who is being taken to the asylum at East Portland Henry Bell, of Corvallis is also bringing J D Palmer to the asylum from Benton county Palmer was at one time treated for insanity in Salem by one of the physicians there, but his cure seems not to have been permanent CAPTURED —"Spud Murphy who was arrested and discharged last week, on an accusation of breaking into the store of Kast & Cahalin was arrested by officer Blake yesterday at Oregon City. This time he is charged with having stolen a shot gun from a wharf boat We presume an examination of the affair will be held in the Recorder's Court to day as the prisoner was brought down on the boat from Oregon City yesterday afternoon.

MEDICAL LECTURES —Hon J H Mitchell, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the Willamette University will go up to Salem this morning for the purpose of delivering a course of lectures to the students of the medical department of that institution The course will begin to-morrow and two lectures will be delivered each day until the entire course of thirty is completed

MORE LAW —We learn from the Albany Register that Hon J Quinn Thornton is soon to leave Albany to open a law office in this city Mr Thornton is one of the ablest lawyers in the State, and will be an ornament to the legal profession in Portland

MRS. MARTIN'S LECTURE —The lecture to be delivered by Mrs Rosa Martin at Harmony Hall to-morrow evening is for a [illegible] and very commendable object and should be well patronized. See the notice published elsewhere

PROF CARDINELL —This popular dancing master has lately been teaching a very flourishing school at Oregon City The term will close to-morrow evening The Professor, however, will immediately commence a new term

NOT YET IN —At our last advices from Astoria the Helen W. Almy had not got inside the bar. When the boat left for this place on Saturday the weather at the mouth of the river was stormy and the bar rough COURTS —The United States District Court for Oregon will convene this morning at ten o'clock. The United States Circuit Court will meet to-morrow pursuant to adjournment.

FOR VANCOUVER The Fannie Troup started for Vancouver on Saturday forenoon and reached that place all right She will make her regular trips hereafter

SOLD A B Richardson, auctioneer, sold thirty two lots in Seattle on last Saturday at his auction rooms, at an average of ten dollars each

STORMY Yesterday was marked by high winds and heavy rains in this latitude. The river was rising rapidly last evening

TO ARRIVE —The Montana from San Francisco may be expected this evening or to morrow morning.

DUE —The steamship California from Victoria is now due at this port

THE WEST.

Alexander McPherson, of Santa Cruz has obtained a patent for the construction of earthquake-proof stone, brick or adobe walls and other buildings

Marysville and Yuba City speak of consolidation. Their interests are identical and the union would be a mutual benefit The two would make quite an extensive and imposing city

The artesian well at Oakland has now reached the depth of 275 feet, and the drills are now in a vein of gravel and sand which has been forced up in the pipes to the distance of ten feet

District Attorney Majoribaum at Austin Nevada, has brought suit against the Central Pacific Railroad for $155 549 84, the same being for delinquent State and county taxes for the year 1869

The Avitor company is trying to raise $10,000 on the unassessable stock, to give the invention a fair trial. The "invention" is very sure to fly—away with the funds invested in it, whether or not it shall ever "kite "

The San Jose Mercury gives this terse argument on immigration "Cheap fares and cheap lands will do more to bring in immigrants than all the money that can be raised to make them come without these inducements "

Horse thieves are now hung at sight in Texas, whenever they are caught A traveler in that State writes that he found seven of them hung on trees in a ride of five miles, and a Texas paper says that the crop of such fruit is large this season throughout the State.

The Truckee Tribune says, J W Marshall, the man who first discovered gold in California, is at Kelsey's Diggings, Eldorado county, old and feeble and compelled to work for his board and clothes The Tribune calls on all miners to make up a fifty cent contribution for him

The Sacramento Bee informs us that there are sixty five school houses in the Capital, with ninety five teachers and an average daily attendance of pupils of 2 566 The county school moneys, received from all sources, figure up to the amount of $57,344, while the expenditures are only $70,000

The Watertown Republican reports that William Barrett, a farmer living near the city, lost six head of cattle between Thursday night and Friday morning, December 23d and 24th, under circumstances which led those acquainted with the disease, and the manner of their death to the belief that they died from that terrible cattle plague called rinderpest

Carlin bids fair to be a lively town in the spring, being the natural outlet to the railroad of the vast mineral resources of the mining districts of Railroad, Mineral Hill, Eureka and Spring Valley The reports from the above named districts are of the most favorable character The mines of Railroad District are said to be producing large quantities of fine copper and argentiferous galena ore

The Inland Empire congratulates its readers on the prospect of better times in White Pine. The immense shipments of bullion eastward, it says, will prove to the world the value of the White Pine mining districts, and the return of miners who mean business, and who do not want to forfeit their valuable claims, will soon create lively times, and make next Spring only a repetition of '68 9

At Los Angeles, January 10th, considerable excitement was caused by an indictment by the Grand Jury now in session of all the members of the late City Council, including the Mayor, for felony. The indictment is based upon an alleged fraudulent issue of city scrip to the extent of over $50,000, only about $8,000 of which can, in any manner, be accounted for at the present time—even the stubs in the books from which the scrip was cut having been destroyed Of the parties arrested, eight are members of the present Council, and two are ex-members They have each given bail in $5,000.

The Sacramento Bee hits the nail on the head when it says of the Immigration Aid bill ; "Better for us to invite people here by low taxes, and by giving to them the public land at the minimum price. Stop selling the public domain to speculators, and keep it for immigrants If these people knew that they could get land here at a dollar and a quarter an acre, and that taxation was low, they would come here much faster, without any bill of this kind, than they will come with it, to pay five or ten dollars an acre for land, and high taxes ! We have it in our power to bring them by wise legislation and without expense Let us ask Congress to stop the sale of the public domain, and retain it for the use of actual settlers , and let the State do the same with her own lands

ALASKA

[From the Alaska Times, Dec 25]

The Vital Statistics of California

Show that periodical fevers and acute and chronic disorders of the stomach and bowels are among the most prominent and fatal diseases in the State Disobedience to the laws of health as regards the use of pernicious stimulants and the wear and tear of business excitement and of fast life generally, have much to do with the prevalence of these maladies in our cities while in the interior and especially in the gold yielding districts, they are chiefly due to malaria, unwholesome water and exposure and privation incident to life in new settlements and mining camps Now it is a fact that it is as possible to protect the human system against these maladies as to guard life and property against the incursions of assassins and thieves. Strengthen the vital organization with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS and it becomes as capable of resisting the active principle of epidemic or endemic disease as a fire proof safe is of resisting the action of combustion This is the experience of thousands who have remained unscathed by malarious disorders in the sickliest seasons while their neighbors who neglected to tone and regulate their systems with this unequalled medicinal stimulant, have fallen thick and fast around them Weakness invites disease Vigor repels it Help nature to fight the good fight with infection whether it be in the air the water or the soil, with this matchless preparation a compound of the purest vegetable extracts with the purest of all diffusive stimulants

The Future of Parties.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

The tone of the President's Message and of the pening debates in Congress sufficiently indicate he future policy of the Republican Party—if we ay call that a policy which is rather an accident of the natural consequence of foregone events. he party of "great moral ideas"—and there is substantial truth as well as a sarcasm in the hrase—proposes now to settle down into the tern yet necessary, the honest yet wearisome, ask of paying off the national debt, of restoring nd improving the dignity of our relations toward foreign powers, and of introducing into the overnment civil service something of that purity and esprit de corps which have characterized, as a rule, the service of the army, the avy and the Judiciary.

These are praiseworthy purposes. They embody that which is most essential in a Republican Government. But they make no appeal whatever to passion or to popular anxiety. Even in the case of Cuba, in which a vivid appeal might have been made to the sympathies of the masses, a calm statesmanship and a rigid observance of international law, addressing only the cooler judgment of enlightened publicists, takes the place of hot invective and of a grand apotheosis of the Monroe doctrine and the Bird of Freedom. The Darien Canal carries with it some elements of popularity; beyond that, all is hum drum duty and quiet resolution to lessen the burdens of taxation while the national credit is made sure. There are, to be sure, some fag-ends of reconstruction left to be completed, but reconstruction is now so nearly an accomplished fact that both parties are willing to let it have free course and run, in the confident assurance that the good involved in the general result will ultimately over shadow all defects in the agencies employed.

We have employed the phrase "a party of great moral ideas," for nothing can be more descriptive of the Republican organization, of the impassioned zeal with which it will fight for a principle, of the persuasive and proselyting power it can exert when grand interests are at stake. It has unswerving courage in the front of battle, but it detests the tiresome drill, the irksome discipline and the long march that leads up to the enemy; to carry out the army comparison—it has its inert main body, its guerrillas, who, like the Kuklux Klan, insist on fighting after the war is over, and its camp followers and sutlers. The latter are a large and influential class, and the Republican, like all other parties, has its corrupt element, of which nothing save continued defeat can purify it. So long as it has the prestige of victory and spoils, it can rely upon the voice and vote of a host of worthies who are sure to leave it in the day of its adversity.

We argue, therefore, that the Republicans are in a position altogether different from any they have occupied during the sixteen years of that wonderful career in which they have achieved successes and reforms which seemed even to themselves at the outset, to be the work of a century. They have no longer a hold upon the ordinarily indifferent class who vote only for ideas; their theory of administration is too honest for the camp followers; and they are deficient in mock thunder and clap-trap. More than that, patriotic duty compels them to enforce onerous fiscal obligations, with none of the usual sops to Cerberus, in the shape of glory, armed acquisition of territory, or other violent wavings of the American flag.

This is a sorrowful statement; for it involves a confession that many good men only support a cause in its emergencies; that many weak men desert it except under the stimulus of high example, and that the corruptionists who follow its march to victory are willing to fight upon the other side when the spoils are no longer forthcoming. Is the Democratic party in any better position? So far as affirmative political doctrine is concerned, it has none. Its "mission" for years past has been to prophesy terrible results from the continuance of Republican rule. These predicted results have never come to pass. If they had it would have made little difference; for the Democracy has no claim to any policy of its own,—no distinctive theory as to the payment of the national debt, no scheme of reconstruction, save to fall back upon the status existing before the rebellion, and which caused the war; no purpose and hardly a pretense of honesty and economy in expenditure; and no power of appeal to the populace in any bold, aggressive mode of handling our foreign relations. The Democracy has nothing affirmative left. What little of principle it may assert, is but a sapless and withered thing of the past—an old man's memory of great bonfires over petty affairs. It only exhibits itself as a drag upon the wheel of progress. Its conservatism has degenerated into Bourbonism.

Yet it has a wicked and cruel strength which it exerts without mercy, and without remorse. The recent Charter election in this City is a case in point. It was characterized by fraud of the grossest character,—but that is usual. The real nuisance was that the frauds were unnecessary for a decided party success, and were employed by one class of Democrats against another as unscrupulously as if there had been something of principle worth the winning, even by foul means. Yet there was nothing at stake save the personal ambition of local Democratic leaders, and the chance for robbing the City treasury. To accomplish these ends almost every commandment in the decalogue was systematically violated, every teaching of the code of gentlemanly honor was discarded and men of social standing were willing to be known as scoundrels if they could only prefix to that epithet the word "successful."

What the Democracy gain in New York by these practices, they lose elsewhere. We have little faith and no patience with the recent outcry for Vigilance Committees. There is not outside of the Democracy enough of the violent class to make such an experiment with any hope of success. Yet the very mention of that ultima ratio implies a deep-seated sense of injury and wrong, which is [illegible] warmly participated in by the rural districts and adjoining States that New York Democracy is steadily committing a slow suicide.

How, then, will it be in 1872, when all these [illegible] in both parties will combine to control another Presidential election? The Democracy will have no other record save that of the vilest and most thievish of State and municipal Governments,—but that record alone will be of magnitude enough to rouse the indifferent element among the Republicans and teach it that "great moral ideas" are continuous and not spasmodic in their action. At the same time, the Republicans will come before the people with a story of national credit restored, of debts paid, of economy enforced, of territory acquired, of peace and good will established between lately warring sections, of commercial prosperity, and of great material enterprises accomplished. In the mean time sundry causes of discontent will have been removed. Gold and paper [illegible] may, hope, will be equivalents in value, the rough fluctuations in the price of gold which now imperil the importer and the merchant will have passed away, taxation will have been reduced, and a compromise will have been effected upon the tariff question by which justice to consumers shall be reconciled with reasonable encouragement to domestic industry. With such Democratic negations on the one side, and Republican achievements on the other, we may hope for and predict a national Republican triumph in 1872.

A Curious Reminiscence.

THE ELEPHANT COLUMBUS ON THE RAMPAGE—RACE FOR LIFE—THREE MEN AND A DOZEN ANIMALS KILLED.

[From the Cincinnati Chronicle, Dec 31.]

Thirty years ago to day, on the 31st of December, 1839, the famous rampage of the elephant Columbus occurred near New Orleans, and as the only living witnesses of the affair are residents of Cincinnati at present, we will give a short account of the elephantine tear.

Raymond & Wahring's Circus and Menagerie, which had been showing separately in the centre of Louisiana, were ordered by the proprietors to rendezvous at a point three miles above Algiers—which town is directly opposite New Orleans—on the last day of the year, in order that the combination, which was the largest that ever appeared in the South, might march into the Crescent City on New Year's Day. With one branch of the show was the elephant Columbus, and with the other Hannibal, both of whom achieved national fame afterwards. The junction had been formed, and the procession was nearly in readiness to move, when, unfortunately, the two elephants were brought together, and they immediately proceeded to test their pugilistic accomplishments. Their keepers interfered and succeeded in parting them, and Hannibal quieted down, but Columbus was not to be so easily satisfied. He stood glaring around for a few minutes, and then struck his keeper's horse a fearful blow with his trunk, and followed it up by thrusting his immense tusks (over six feet long) through the animal's body. The keeper, William Crum, fell with his horse, and the elephant next attacked him, picking him up with his trunk and dashing him against the ground with such force as to break half the bones in his body and cause instant death. Columbus then marched along the line until he reached the lama cage, which he upset and demolished, killing the lama. His next movement was to make a dive for John Robinson and Arthur Crippen, both of this city, who were connected with the service, but these gentlemen being on horseback succeeded, although with great trouble and danger, in escaping. Columbus now passed the caravan at a run, and soon met a drayman driving two mules, both of which fell victims to his rage, as did also the driver, who attempted to escape by running, but was overtaken. Passing through Algiers, the elephant soon came across a negro man sitting on a fence, and tore down the fence to get at him, and then tore him piecemeal. The negro was a slave, and Columbus' owners were required to pay $1,800 for killing him. Further on, about nine miles from his starting point, the elephant met a Frenchman and a party of negroes, whom he attempted to demoralize also, but here he met his match, and after a combat of nearly an hour he gave up and was chained, having first received three bullets from a rifle, just below the right eye. The wounds occasioned no inconvenience, however, beyond producing running sores, which lasted till Columbus' death, which was caused by his falling through a bridge at North Adams, Mass., in 1864, and breaking his neck. In his rampage the elephant killed nearly a dozen horses, mules, cows and calves, for which his owners were compelled to pay about $20,000. The circus and menagerie company were composed of one hundred and eight men, of whom but three are known to be living at present, they being John Robinson, circusman, and Arthur P. Chippen, watchman at the I. & C. depot in this city, and Louis Pipman, dry goods merchant at Laurel, Ind., all three of whom witnessed the disaster, and were compelled to observe extreme caution to preserve their own lives. Mr Crippen subsequently had both arms broken by Columbus while assisting in shipping him to Philadelphia.

Decrease in Whisky Drinking

It has generally been supposed that the consumption of ardent spirits, especially in Great Britain and Ireland, was greatly on the increase. But this turns out not to be the case, if reliance can be placed upon the returns, of the excise officers in that kingdom. From these it appears that in 1866, the entire consumption of domestic spirits in the kingdom was 22,217,390 gallons, and of foreign and colonial spirits, 7,797,470 gallons—a total of 30,014,860 gallons. But in 1868, the entire consumption of domestic spirits was 21,008,460 gallons, and of foreign and colonial spirits 8,398,817 gallons—a total of only 29,407,460 gallons. So that, notwithstanding the increase of population in these three years, there were 607,400 gallons less drank in 1868 than 1866, and consequently there must have been proportionately less drunkenness. There is another striking fact connected with the returns, which is, that Scotland, the most thrifty, prosperous, and enterprising portion of the kingdom, consumes more spirits in proportion to population than any other. Thus, while the population of Scotland is less than one half that of Ireland, there were 687,496 gallons more of whisky drank in the former than the latter country last year. In other words, every Scotchman must have drank something more than twice as much whisky as every Irishman. The population of Scotland is about one sixth that of England; but the consumption of whisky in Scotland was almost one third of the consumption in England. The figures are:

England........ 18,457,80[illegible] gallons
Scotland........ 5,818,553 gallons
Ireland........ 5,131,087 gallons

We are taught that people become poor, degraded and wretched in proportion to their excess in the use of ardent spirits. But these figures indicate the reverse, which goes to show that other elements must enter into any statements of this kind, such as soil, climate, and constitutional habits of the people. It is a well known fact that the people of Northern Europe generally drink vastly larger quantities of spirits than those of the South. The climate of Scotland is very moist, and a quantity of spirits that would kill a man in other parts of the world, appears to only stimulate the system there to resist the rigorous atmosphere and enable it to perform its wonted amount of necessary labor.

By the excise tax on the above 29,404,460 gallons of spirits, the British Government received last year a revenue of $75,000,000. On the other hand, we in the United States get but half as much revenue from one hundred millions of gallons. Cannot this defective collection be remedied?

The last day of the week is unmarked by any change in our daily report. A week of more general quiet in trade circles has been witnessed but seldom in our city. There is a considerable amount of produce in the various warehouses and on the wharves of the city awaiting the steamers and sailing vessels now due or on route for this port.

Wheat—A large proportion of the last year's crop is being marketed, as the prospect of an advance on present figures is not of an encouraging character. Telegrams from Liverpool note perceptible decline in the European markets, while at New York prices are nominal. Our own market in this staple for the month, so far, has been very steady with the least tendency to advance.

Flour continues to arrive in large quantities from the various mills in the Wallamet valley, and rates remain unchanged, as a great deal is sent here on orders transmitted some time ago.

Oats are in better supply for local use, and prices are firm, most of those offered during the past few days being taken readily at the highest figures given below.

Groceries are dull, the supply being full, if we except the article of coal oil, of which there is none in the market. Bacon, lard, butter and eggs are plenty and prices unchanged.

HIRAM SMITH'S Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Prepared by SMITH & ROACH,
Harrisburg, Oregon.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a [illegible] existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of life or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death [illegible] the scene. Let guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is the [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many unfounded doctors who infest all cities, publishing their ability in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing on the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of a solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, by the youth of both sexes, is almost certain in producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails in affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should at once [illegible] responsibility resting upon them, and obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give every patient a written instrument, binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the public. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and [illegible] to work at their trades. [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1867 and 1868. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive the public by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy you of his ability; call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] he proposes to cure.

Address DR J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, near Commercial, (Private Entrance on [illegible]) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
